

From Thomas Isaac Baum & Margie Kiskadden home to American Flagg Butte:

Parley Probst Ranch home and barns=cattl & sheep man.

Heber Power Plant built in 1909.

Wooden Flume carried the water under pressure, to the Heber Power Plant. Earlier, water from Provo River at Jordanelle, was diverted into a canal along the east hills and dropped into the turbines of the Heber Plant. (HBUM p.210)

On the left; a road to the old Vallejo Bridge and mine.

Beautiful large meadow of subirrigated volunteer timothy grass, on the left
Now BLM has made a wetlands out of it.

At Provo River, John Jordan had a spring and a log cabin. Later George Borlan Jordan added a cafe, dance hall, picnic grove and later still: John Wm and Ervin added cabins to rent. Joseph Buys(Brum) Cummings & Mary (Mae) Jordan Cummings ran the cafe cabins and dancehall.

It did not have a name for a long time. Finally they had a contest to choose a name. One lady( ) Finally chose to use the John Jordan Brand "J L" and came up with the name of "Jordan L." Later, It finally was spelled "Jordanelle." This happened during the later years of George Borlan Jordan's life.

Going back to Tommy Baums place---don't forget the road on the west side of the Provo River all the way up to Hailstone. Also the Power Plant Picnic area and Glen Moulton home and Walker Ranch, in River Vale
Hall Fish Culturing
